Learn, Improve or Reactivate your German Language

with the Barossa German Language Association Inc.

The Barossa German Language Association (BGLA) aims to revive or renew German as a community language. It supports documentation or recording of German speakers' life experiences, and at social events offers informal conversation for speakers to maintain German. It holds cultural events to promote German language use in the region, including regular Kaffee und Kuchen gatherings for seniors. The Barossa German Language School holds classes for young and old for for revival of German language learning and use in the Barossa area.
