Luther 500 Seminar

20 August 2017 @ 2pm

Wine centre Faith Lutheran Secondary school

Speakers at the Luther 500 event reflect on Luther's influence on Christian music and education, on the German language, as well as on Luther the pastor and teacher, whose immense scholarship covers more than one hundred volumes.

Dr Malcolm Bartsch on Luther on Music and Education:

Dr Malcolm Bartsch, born and brought up in the Barossa Valley, is an emeritus lecturer of Australian Lutheran College where he also served as dean of studies and vice principal. He was formerly a lecturer and principal of Lutheran Teachers College.

Dr John Kleinig on Luther on the Power of Spoken German

More than anyone else Luther has shaped the German language by his popular translation of the Bible and his other writings.

Before studying for ordination as a Lutheran pastor, Dr. Kleinig completed a BA with Honours in German at the University of Adelaide. He has a MPhil and a PhD in divinity from the University of Cambridge and has also been awarded two honorary doctorates.

Dr Maurice Schild on Dr Martin Luther, the man

Dr Maurice Schild was born in 1936 at Eudunda, SA, and grew up at Point Pass, the original home of Immanuel College. He studied at the University of Adelaide from 1954 to 1957, and concurrently at Immanuel Theological Seminary in 1954 and 1957. He received a Deutscher Akademischer Austauschdienst grant to study at Heidelberg University in West Germany in 1958.

After the Speakers and musical interlude will be Wine & Cheese,
Coffee & Tea

No admission charge, all welcome.
